

APAHM ASIAN.PACIFIC.AMERICAN HERITAGE.MONTH

Sakura Matsuri

Fri. 3/25 - 6:00PM | BSC MPR, Busch
RONS is once again happy to host our annual Sakura Matsuri! Our event will feature free food, live performances, prizes, and more! Come enjoy an evening of Japanese festivities hosted by RONS! FREE Admission
Rutgers Organization of Nippon Students

Wa Boogie

Mon. 3/28 - 7:00PM | AACC, Livingston
The Cultural Center Collaborative invites you to celebrate Women's History Month through art. Come join us and learn about Wa Boogie's work within the community through dance by being a B(breakdancing)-Girl followed by a dance workshop.
Cultural Center Collaborative, alpha Kappa Delta Phi Sorority, Nu Alpha Phi Fraternity

AACC Block Party & BBQ

Fri. 4/1 - 5:30PM | Morrell St., CAC
AACC's annual Block Party is the kick-off event to start the Asian Pacific American Heritage Month celebration! Join us for food, games and music as we celebrate our community! #APAHM
Asian American Cultural Center

Preserving Our Cultural Heritage through Batik

Mon. 4/4 9:30PM | AACC, Livingston
Cultural heritage provides a connection for descendants to their parents' or grandparents' homeland. One unique Indonesian cultural heritage is Batik, a method of creating patterns and designs on fabrics using a manual wax dyeing resistance technique. Come and learn how to make your own batik with Donna Backues. (Seats are limited)
Asian American Cultural Center, Asian Student Council

The True Islam Campaign

Wed. 4/6 - 6:30PM | RSC, CAC
Our objective is to provide all Americans with a clear way to distinguish True Islam from extremism, and to unify Muslim Americans on the correct understanding of Islam that Prophet Muhammad(pbu) taught. The Campaign strengthens America's national security against extremism.
Muslim Student Association

TASA Nightmarket

Fri. 4/8 - 6:00PM | Morrell St., CAC
Get ready! TASA brings you a taste of popular night markets of Taiwan. Tons of thrilling games, authentic Taiwanese street foods and bubble teas, talented performers, and a photo booth to remember the sweet memories! Rain Date - 4/10
Taiwanese American Student Association, Asian American Cultural Center

"A is for Arab: Stereotypes in U.S. Popular Culture" - Art Installation

Mon. 4/11-4/29 | AACC, Livingston
The exhibit features photographs of objects and materials documenting U.S. popular culture representations of Arabs and Muslims from the early-20th century to the present.
Asian American Cultural Center, Rutgers Off-Campus Living and Community Partnerships

"Show Your True Colors: A Night Centered Around Self-Reflection" - AACC Jr. Intern Event

Wed. 4/13 - 8:00PM | Livingston Apartment B Lounge, Livingston
Join us in a dialogue to explore intersectionality as you paint a picture that represents who you are and the social identities you hold.
Asian American Cultural Center

Holi Moli

Fri. 4/15 - 1PM to 5PM | LSC Lawn, Livingston
The biggest Holi event Rutgers University has ever seen, HOLI MOLI! Come enjoy a day filled with friends, the throwing of colors, music and FOOD!
Rutgers Hindu Students Council

Spring Hafla

Fri. 4/15 - 8PM | CASC MPR, CAC
The bi-annual Hafla event. Free entrance, free food, and free henna! The show will feature group performances and solos. It's a fun night filled with shimmies and coin belts!
Rutgers Belly Dance Troupe

Lunch & Learn: "Queer and Being APIA" Film Discussion

Fri. 4/15 - 12PM | SJE, CAC
Dol is a heartbreaking story about the tensions of a divided life. The film's protagonist, while not exactly joyless, quietly suffers a stifled existence in which his Korean-American and gay identities can't fully intersect.
Asian American Cultural Center & Social Justice Education & LGBTQ Communties

Chinese Calligraphy Workshop

Mon. 4/18 - 2:00PM-5:00PM | AACC, Livingston
Come and learn through hands-on practice, some basic skills of Chinese Calligraphy.
Asian American Cultural Center, Rutgers University

"Equality vs. Equity" - AACC Jr. Intern Event

Mon. 4/18 - 5:00PM | Livingston Apartment B Lounge, Livingston
We would like to invite everyone to a discussion about the inherent flaws of promoting equality without acknowledging the need for equity in today's society.
Asian American Cultural Center

What is the Bamboo Ceiling? - AACC Jr. Intern Event

Wed. 4/20 - 7:30PM | AACC, Livingston
Come and learn the meaning behind the term "Bamboo Ceiling" and how it has affected the advancement of Asian Pacific Islanders in the work force.
Asian American Cultural Center

Fun w/ the BIG Questions: Spirituality and Artistic Expressions

Thur. 4/21 7:00PM | AACC, Livingston
What is the meaning of life? Why do bad things happen to good people? Come and join the conversations as we tackle the big questions of life through various mediums of art.
Asian American Cultural Center, Rutgers Off-Campus Living and Community Partnerships

Asian American Studies Learning Community Scholars Art Exhibition

Fri. 4/22 - 1:30PM | AACC MPR, Livingston
Students of the Asian American Studies Learning Community course will be presenting their final projects. The title of the exhibit is Reflections on Identity - Who am I?: An Exhibition on Self-Portraiture. Students will showcase their reflections on self, identity, and communities through a variety of mediums of art.
Department of American Studies, Asian American Cultural Center, Department of Residence Life

Barrio Fiesta

Sat 4/23 - 5:00PM | Treves Halls, DCC
A Filipino cultural night filled with traditional dances and food.
Rutgers Association of Philippine Students

CHINANITE XXI: Ambition

Sun. 4/24 - 6:30PM | CASC MPR, CAC
The theme of CSO's 21st annual fashion show "Ambition." ChinaNite is a stage where students, designers, dancers, actors, and more can get together to create an amazing story that is not only interesting, but visually appealing to its viewers.
Rutgers Chinese Student Organization

Rutgers Day

Sat. 4/30 - 10AM to 4PM | Voorhees Mall, CAC
Join the Asian American Cultural Center for Asian American crafts and games, and meet the famous paper cutter, Master Cheng.
visit rutgersday.rutgers.edu

Asian Oscars

Mon. 5/2 - 8:30PM | CASC MPR, CAC
All student groups are welcome to attend the annual Asian Oscars Award Ceremony. Extraordinary students and organizations will receive awards for their contributions to Rutgers University and local communities. Nominations due 4/20!
Asian American Cultural Center