The Rutgers Club, founded in 1957, originally located in one of New Brunswick’s historic houses built in 1915, has recently relocated to Livingston Campus where we now offer a state of the art dining and entertainment experience:

- Convenient location to host a meeting or gathering
- Innovative menus created by award-winning chefs
- Enjoy our bar with up to nine (9) business associates and friends
- Host cocktail and hors d’oeuvres receptions
- Enjoy our exclusive events and buffet specials
- Reciprocity with over 100 University Clubs throughout the world

In addition to the Club Room main dining area and full service bar, there are three private salons to suit your entertainment and meeting requirements which are equipped with wireless access, TV screens, audio system, as well as state of the art video conferencing and teleconferencing capabilities. The Rutgers Club stands ready to serve you and your guests.
