Milly Chang	Member-at-Large
Anthony Stasyshyn	Member-at-Large
Marty Siederer	Member-at-Large
Susan Mansfield Byrne	Member-at-Large
Chris Van Eerde	Member-at-Large

Kim Sciallo is seeking a second term as President of The Rutgers Club and served as Vice President for two years prior. A graduate of University College with a degree in Labor Studies, Kim is the Global Process Owner of Credit Risk Management for John Wiley & Sons, Inc. She also served as the Chair of the University College–Rutgers New Brunswick Alumni Association and has held various Alumni leadership roles, including a term as RUAA Board Member, Corporate Secretary of the RUAA, past Chair of the Alumni Leaders Council Committee, and member of the Beta Zeta Chapter of Alpha Sigma Lambda National Honor Society.

Dr. William DeFabiis served The Rutgers Club as Treasurer for four years prior to being elected to his current position of Vice President. He is seeking his second term as Vice President of The Rutgers Club. He earned his Doctorate in Education from the Rutgers University Graduate School of Education where he teaches as a part-time lecturer. Bill was an active member of the Graduate School of Education Alumni Association, serving as the Treasurer for the organization as both member and Chair of several committees. Bill was elected as a faculty Senator on the University Senate representing New Brunswick part-time lecturers. Professionally, he served for twenty five years as Superintendent of Schools.

Kevin Freeman is seeking his second term as Club Treasurer. He is a retired Director of Business Solutions at American Express, and since his retirement Kevin has a new career in real estate. He also is a US Soccer Federation referee and referee coach and holds referee certifications with the National Inter-Collegiate Soccer Officials Association, as well as the National Federation of State High School Associations. Kevin has served as President of the Raritan Valley Soccer Officials Association, having previously served as Vice President, as well as Sergeant at Arms. Among his duties, he was responsible for membership matters, annual registration and acted as the chapter's web master.

Elizabeth Marquez is seeking her second term as Secretary for The Rutgers Club. Prior to being elected to this position, Liz served as Co-Chair of the Special Events Committee for The Club. Liz is a longtime friend and supporter of Rutgers and has presented workshops for teachers through the Center for Discrete Mathematics and Theoretical Computer Science, mentored teaching interns from and taught at the Graduate School of Education. She has authored books on mathematics education and works as a mathematics researcher and assessment specialist at Education Testing Service. Liz has also served on the Planning and Zoning Board for Milltown and is a former member of that town's Board of Education.

Milly Chang is seeking her second term on the Executive Committee as Member-at-Large where she assumed major responsibility for communications, working closely with the Rutgers University Assistant Director of Marketing and Communications, Dining Services. Having graduated from Douglass College and the Rutgers University School of Business, Milly is the marketing manager at Radio Spirits. Prior to this role, she held finance and marketing positions at American Express, Time Warner and BMG Music.

Anthony Stasyshyn who manages the lead generation and marketing functions for Brother International's Mobile Products Division, is seeking his second term as Member-at-Large of The Rutgers Club where he also served as co-chair of the bylaws committee. Anthony's expertise is in marketing, while possessing a deep working knowledge of integrating sales strategies and tactics to drive results in fast-paced environments, as well as finding innovative ways to maximize revenue and profitability.

Marty Sierderer was appointed by the President to complete the term of a Member-at-Large who resigned. He is seeking his first full term as a Member-at-Large. Marty graduated from Rutgers (Livingston College) in 1977 with a degree in journalism and urban studies. His Rutgers alumni volunteer service includes terms as President of the Livingston and Rutgers Alumni associations, member of the RUAA board, Vice President of the Rutgers School of Communication and Information Studies Alumni Association, and Rutgers University Senate. Marty was named a Loyal Son of Rutgers in 2009 by the Rutgers Alumni Association and received the RAA's Walter Seward Class of 1931 Alumni Award in 2023. Marty has worked in the non-profit field for organizations. He is currently a consultant for non-profits and serves as an Encore Fellow for AmericaCorp New Mexico.

Dr. Susan Mansfield Byrne is seeking her first term as a Member-at-Large. She was previously a Rutgers Club Executive Committee member, serving as Secretary for four years and co-chair of the Special Events Committee and helped with the transition from the Club's College Avenue home to its new home on the Living Campus by planning both the grand opening and the 60th anniversary of the Rutgers Club. She began planning for a special Nine and Dine, a long-discussed golfing event, prior to the closing of the club due to COVID. Susan is a graduate of both Douglass College and the Graduate School of Education. She is a former elementary school Principal with Woodbridge Township School District and has been a member of the Rutgers Club for over 35 years.

Chris Van Eerde is seeking his first term as Member-at-Large for The Rutgers Club. He is a law enforcement professional with the Middlesex County Prosecutor's Office where he serves as a detective, task force officer, and crisis negotiator. He was recognized as the Law Enforcement Officer of the Year in both 2019 and 2023. He is also an elected State Delegate with the New Jersey State Police Benevolent Association where he represents PBA Local #214. Chris has been a volunteer with New Jersey State Little League for the past 20 years, is a past-president of the New Jersey State Federation of Umpires, and is a NCAA umpire where he recently worked the NJCAA DIII World Series. He is a 2012 Rutgers graduate and serves on the Alumni Association's Membership Services Committee
