

Let's Combat Hate with Love

#LoveAScarletKnight

Instructions: In the midst of this fractious time in our nation, many outside groups have seen this period as an opportunity to spark hate and discord among the diverse and inclusive communities at universities, including here at Rutgers-New Brunswick. In response, we are calling for all members of our community to come together to reject hateful ideology and show love, compassion, and kindness to one another. To help facilitate these acts, we have created a "BINGO" sheet, to serve as a prompt to showing love and support for your fellow Scarlet Knights.
